Tribal Communities and Family Resilience Today

Adoption Competent Mental Health · https://bridges4mentalhealth.org/hub/adoption-competence/tribal-communities-and-family-resilience-today/

Summary: The Center for Native Child and Family Resilience (The Center) works to raise awareness of Tribally engaged prevention and intervention efforts. The Center partners with Native Tribes to examine solutions for healing the ongoing family trauma persisting in the aftermath of the numerous historical injuries shared by many Tribal communities, including the break-up of Native families and child removal.

Application: This resource will be helpful in learning about effective ways to connect and bring awareness to the needs of Tribal communities.

Source: The Center for Native Child and Family Resilience

Read More