The National Training and Technical Assistance Center for Children, Youth, and Family Mental Health (NTTAC) and the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) partnered to develop and publish the Children's Mental Health Initiative (CMHI) Needs Assessment Template and Guidelines. This template aligns with the system of care framework (SOC) and is designed to assist CMHI grantees to comprehensively evaluate the current landscape of children's mental health services, identifying critical needs and areas for improvement within systems of care.
