Supporting Foster Youth and Their Family Connections: Policy and Practice Recommendations

Adoption Competent Mental Health · https://bridges4mentalhealth.org/hub/adoption-competence/supporting-foster-youth-and-their-family-connections-policy-and-practice-recommendations/

This resource looks at the perspectives of foster youth and their experiences with their family connections, emphasizing any issues or difficulties. The resource is a collection of the results of a study that gave foster youth the opportunity to express their experiences through creative expression. The information presented from the study can be applied to those with lived experience, as well as those working in the foster care system who may consider using creative expression to connect with foster youth.

Read More