How do Tribal health, Medicaid, and child welfare systems interact?

American Indian/Alaska Native Tribal Nations · https://bridges4mentalhealth.org/hub/tribal-communities/how-do-tribal-health-medicaid-and-child-welfare-systems-interact/

This report profiles three Tribal-run programs, the Sacred Child Project, the Wahzhazhe Early Learning Academy, and Healing Horse Ranch. Each profile illustrates a different model of Tribal healing behavioral health care and a different approach to sustainable financing. Together, the briefs move from systems-level context to practical strategy to real-world examples, offering administrators a roadmap for building meaningful partnerships that uphold Tribal sovereignty, promote Tribal healing, and maintain cultural connection for Native children and families in behavioral health care.
