Engaging Families in Child Welfare and Mental Health Services Webinar Part Two

Engagement of Lived Experience · https://bridges4mentalhealth.org/hub/youth-family-engagement/engaging-families-in-child-welfare-and-mental-health-services/

The National Center's January webinar is a continuation of December’s Engaging Families in Child Welfare and Mental Health Services webinar. This follow-up panel discussion features insights from biological, foster, adoptive, and kinship parents with experience in family engagement. Learn various ways families can engage in services like recruitment of foster, kinship, and adoptive families; family interaction with child welfare, requesting services and interactions with service providers, and other challenges and opportunities.
