Engaging Young People With Lived Experience in the CFSRs: Key Considerations, Roles, and Recommendations

Engagement of Lived Experience · https://bridges4mentalhealth.org/hub/youth-family-engagement/engaging-young-people-with-lived-experience-in-the-cfsrs-key-considerations-roles-and-recommendations/

Summary: This tipsheet was developed by young people with lived experience and recommends the best methods of recruiting, engaging, supporting, and retaining young people in all aspects of the Child and Family Service Reviews (CFSR).

Application: While this resource is very helpful for the CFSR process, it can also help child welfare professional authentically engage youth in day to day practice.

Source: Child and Family Services Review

Read More