National Research on the Impact of Lived Experience Across Systems

Engagement of Lived Experience · https://bridges4mentalhealth.org/hub/youth-family-engagement/national-research-on-the-impact-of-lived-experience-across-systems/

National Research on the Impact of Lived Experience on Systems

This report shows that involving people with lived experience in child welfare, health, education, and justice systems leads to more responsive services, stronger policies, and better outcomes for children and families. It positions lived experience as essential to effective, equitable system reform—not an optional addition.

Read the report